45 Pounds (More or Less) is the funniest book I have ever read about an issue that American Teens are facing in this skinny minny world we live in. I have lived Ann's life. I was skinny all my life until I hit 18 years old and then I gained a little weight at college and then I gained weight when I had my children and it is a nightmare.

45 Pounds (More or Less) - Goodreads

The end was amazing and incredible. Overall, 45 Pounds (More or Less) is the kind of book I would recommend to anyone and everyone. It's one giant life lesson, without being in your face. It's not preachy or judgmental - It's life, plain and simple.

I'm so happy to recommend author KA Barson's debut novel 45 Pounds (More or Less). It's a funny contemporary novel about a root-for-her heroine and her dysfunctional family. In this case, the dysfunctionality centers (mostly) around food, since Ann is overweight and has a high-pressure, stick-thin mother.
