Consideration of amendments

— UK Parliament

An amendment is a change to the wording of a Bill or a motion that is proposed by an MP or member of the House of Lords. Consideration of Amendments is the name for what is often the final stage of Bill. When a Bill has been passed by one House but then is amended by the other House, those amendments must be considered by the first House.

Amendments are proposals to change, remove or add to the existing wording of bills (draft legislation) to modify their effect.

Parliament's ability to propose such changes is an important part of the legislative scrutiny process. Different processes apply to amendments to motions. Motions are statements that outline a topic for Parliament to discuss or a question for it to decide.
