Commentary on Acts 9:36-43. This passage begins with the words, "in Joppa there was a certain female disciple ( mathetria) by the name of Tabitha, which being translated (into Greek) also means Dorcas. Her life was full good ( agathos) works ( erga) and necessities for the poor ( eleemosunon ), which she herself provided" (Acts 9:36, my translation).

A Case Study in Death and Resurrection: Acts 9:32-43. By Ted Schroder, www.tedschroder.com October 4, 2015. The raising from the dead of Tabitha by Peter is an opportunity for us to remind ourselves what we believe about death and resurrection. Tabitha was a disciple of Jesus. She was always doing good and helping the poor. She became sick and died.

THE CHALLENGE: Healing and Resurrection Acts 9:32-43

With his concluding "while she was with them" (9:39), the narrator certainly recalls another upper room and one who "was with them" in a story that moved from death to resurrection (see Luke 24:44f). Now one senses another power present as Peter calmly ushers them out, kneels confidently in prayer, and then addresses the body with the command, "Tabitha, arise" (9:41).

Conversion: In Acts chapter 9 we experience the power of conversion, and specifically conversion as a type of resurrection in Jesus Christ, a spiritual resurrection. Conversion is a moment of one's salvation but not the whole of it. Conversion is the moment when we believe in the name of Jesus and have faith in his life, death, and resurrection. It is in this moment our souls rise from the grave of sin and death.
