Attacking Chess The French Everyman

Simon Williams presents an ambitious opening repertoire for Black in the ever-popular French Defence. One of the world's most creative players combines his unique attacking ideas with the traditionally solid French structure, resulting in a powerful armoury of opening weapons. This will prove ideal for players who like to seize the initiative and cause problems for their opponents from the outset.

9781781945070, $27.95/£18.99, 368 Pages. The French Defence provides a good choice for players who want to create a dynamic, unbalanced situation out of the opening but balk at the level of study required to master the ferociously complex Sicilian Defence. The French is one of Black's soundest defences to 1 e4 and is very popular at all levels. White often advances with the space-gaining e4-e5 which, in principle, will generate a small advantage.
