Giving a Heart of Lace by Arietta Richmond
It was a piece of heavy, parchment like paper, folded in two so that a message could be written inside, and decorated on the outside with lace, ribbon and gems (which were almost certainly paste), with tiny paste holly berries in a cluster, and two even smaller dangling bells. The whole thing was cut to a heart shape.

Giving a Heart of Lace: Sweet and Clean Regency Romance is a great change of pace from that normal historical and often, hysterical female character. While staying true to the period, Ms. Richmond has linked two characters—one confined to rank by constraints of birth and one a true victim of circumstances beyond financial control—who find themselves on the outside of the TON plate-glass window looking in.

In 2019 edition, the theme of the giving heart is symbolized with a bouquet of flowers. Simple lace tape outlines the heart shape, flowers grow from the bottom of the heart and blossom with love. They are wrapped with a bow and offered as a present to the rest of the world, with joy and gratitude for creativity, lace and life.

lace + heart + art challenge | Lenka's Way of Lace
A sweet Regency Romance, Giving a Heart of Lace is a bit different from the general run of the mill historic romances. Lady Serafine and her mother have fallen on the worst of times and with the shallow standards of society, have been thoroughly ostracised.
