To inspire you to ask God for the impossible. And in the process, to reconnect you with your God-sized purpose and potential. ”

—Steven Furtick, from Sun Stand Still

Do you know you can command your Sun to stand still for you? It looks unbelievable, but with God having the power to turn things around, all impossibilities can be made possible! Yes, I know you are tired of everything; yeah, you have prayed, and it looks like answers won't come but wait! I got good news for you; God can still make way for you! It doesn't matter how many years you have been awaiting that miracle; it's time to command your Sun to stand still. It's time for you to embrace an outrageous faith! It's you saying no matter how deep the sea is, a path must be created for me to pass through! What is that thing that no one has received that you want God to do for you? If you want God to do something unique in your life, you must be ready to table something great too. The Bible says in the book of Joshua 10; 12-14; Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, "O sun, stand still at Gibeon, And O moon in the valley of Aijalon." So the Sun stood still, and the moon stopped until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies. Is it not written in the book of Jashar? And the Sun stopped in the middle of the sky and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day. There was no day like that before it or after it when the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel. Do you know before Joshua was able to command the Sun to stand still, he did something unique in Joshua 24:15, "He said, and I quote, "As for me and my household, we would serve the Lord!" Joshua knew serving God was the best decision he would take for his household (He sacrifice everything to make sure his family would serve God).When Joshua took this decision, God honored his words because he chose to honor God. The Bible says God listened to a man. If you want the Sun to stand still for you, you need to do something that would make God willing to support your decision.Do you want your sun to stand still? Then you need to sacrifice your time in the prayer altar! It's not about doing it the way others are doing it; it's about you being violent in your prayer room.Let's look at Hannah's life: She has been going to Shiloh for several years, but do you know when the Sun stood still for Hannah? When she prayed like a drunken woman! She went further by tabling a vow! She told God she would give Samuel entirely to Him! Listen! To get something remarkable from God (Making the Sun stand still for you), aside from having unshakable faith, you must be willing to do what others would not want to do. You must be willing to wake in the middle of the night and pour out your heart to God; you must be willing to give God what no one would give Him. You should know many suns have stood still for lots of people(A woman with no owmb that gave birth to a bouncing baby boy). If you want your Sun to stand still, you should be willing to sacrifice something worthwhile to God! Are you willing to make your Sun standstill? It's all about doing something extraordinary to trigger your breakthrough. In my book "Violent prayers to make the Sun standstill, I have outlined powerful prayers with scriptural verses to make your Sun standstill. When God wants to make a man's Sun stand still, He breaks protocols! If you want God to break protocols on your behalf, be willing to tear your heart out with these prayers that would command that unexpected miracle! Note: It takes faith to please God! If you don't have faith, your Sun will not standstill. Remember the Bible says in the book of Romans 14:23, "Whatever does not proceed from faith is sin." Faith pleases God. In fact, without faith, it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6). If you're ready to pray the Violent Prayers to make your Sun standstill, click the "Buy now" button right away!

The publication of the King James version of the Bible, translated between 1603 and 1611, coincided with an extraordinary flowering of English literature and is universally acknowledged as the greatest influence on English-language literature in history. Now, world-class literary writers introduce the book of the King James Bible in a series of beautifully designed, small-format volumes. The introducers' passionate, provocative, and personal engagements with the spirituality and the language of the text make the Bible come alive as a stunning work of literature and remind us of its overwhelming contemporary relevance.

This is the fourth book in this series that began with an in-depth look at how God views details, communicates with this world, and decides what process to use. Of course this series of books looked at aspects recorded in scripture about the Tabernacle. How the materials were collected, specific design details, who did the work, and how the Tabernacle was constructed. Much of that information is found in dozens, maybe hundreds of other books about the Tabernacle. But there are details setting this book apart from every other book written about the Tabernacle. This book takes a verse by verse, story by story, chapter by chapter look at the Tabernacle. In other words, this book presents a picture of the Tabernacle from God's point of view. Which the beginning of this series pointed out, is much different than any human perspective.

One of the greatest examples of a truly successful life we have in Scripture is Joshua. Throughout Exodus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, Joshua is described as Moses' minister. He was always following the example and leadership of Moses, the man God appointed to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt and into Canaan. Joshua was then chosen to succeed Moses as the new leader of Israel and bring them into the Promised Land. Joshua was not chosen because of a royal lineage or his status in nobility. He had neither of these. He was chosen, I believe because of some very key character qualities that he had. And these characteristics brought God's blessing and success in his life - and in the lives of those around him. As we look at his life, there is an awesome statement said about him in the middle of the book of Joshua. This statement is the basis of this book: "As the Lord commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the Lord commanded Moses." (Joshua 11:15) Notice that part I put in bold: "he left nothing undone." This was not his assessment. Neither was it the assessment of his peers. This is the observation that God made and recorded for us. Joshua's testimony was that of accomplishing everything that he was supposed to do. As we look at this thought of "leaving nothing undone," I am not suggesting that you can do everything that you want to do or everything that others want you to do. I am saying that when you find what God wants you to do, develop the right character, and work in God's strength; you can do everything that God wants you to do.

Albert the Great was born in Swabia, the son of a military nobleman. He was a Dominican priest who taught theology in Cologne and Paris. His most distinguished student was Saint Thomas Aquinas. Albert was called "Doctor universalis" because his breadth of knowledge spanned not only philosophy and theology but all the natural sciences. He was a dedicated student of nature, and although he argued that the physical world can only be known reliably through observation and comparison, Albert distinguished between truths, which are naturally knowable, and mysteries, which cannot be known without revelation. People can only reach God through Himself - that is, by leaving behind the entanglements of earthly things and contemplating Him exclusively. The image and reality of God's incarnation in Jesus gives human beings the opportunity to attain a more perfect knowledge God through contemplation. Albert refers to the teaching of St. Peter, "Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you."

What is gravity? Nobody knows—and just about nobody knows that nobody knows. How something so pervasive can also be so mysterious, and how that mystery can be so wholly unrecognized outside the field of physics, is one of the greatest conundrums in modern science. But as award-winning author Richard Panek shows in this groundbreaking, mind-bending book, gravity is a cold case that 's beginning to heat up. In The Trouble with Gravity, Panek invites the reader to experience this ubiquitous yet elusive force in a breathtakingly new way. Gravity, Panek explains, structures not only our bodies and our physical world, but also our minds and culture. From our very beginnings, humans ' conceptions of gravity have been inextricably bound to our understanding of existence itself. As we get closer and closer to solving the riddle of gravity, it is not only physics that is becoming clearer. We are also getting to
