I cried, you didn't listen Very well written, but Sonny and all the other boys that had to survive such horrible treatment is such a crime to them and all the hundreds of others. They stole their souls. Hope every I Cried, You Didn't Listen shows that, within incarcerating institutions, violence in all its forms – sexual assault, cliques, crews, gangs, emotional abuse – is essentially about power and control both over and above one's own sense of self."

I've also seen many videos in You Tube about juvenile jails lately like these:
