Law in the Making is an award winning project seeking to ensure survivors' voices are at the heart of policy decision-making. In 2019/20, we worked with 20 survivors in a series of educational workshops on legislation and campaigning, and engagement sessions with MPs and Members of the House of Lords in relation to the Domestic abuse bill. On 23 rd October 2019 a group of survivors from the Law In The Making project delivered their priorities for a domestic abuse bill to MPs at an event in ...

Law In The Making - Womens Aid
Law in the Making is a ground- breaking project, led by the national domestic abuse charity Women's Aid, which gives survivors the tools and opportunities to develop their priorities for a domestic abuse bill. This project is about ensuring that the voices of survivors shape legislation, which is essential if a bill is going to bring about the step change in the national response to tackling domestic abuse that we need to see.

Law in the Making by Allen - AbeBooks
We hope to build on the successes of the Law in the Making project by building our network of experts by experience ∅ supporting survivors to use their lived experience to transform the national response to domestic abuse. Within this work we must centre the most marginalised voices, and ensure those with lived experience have power and agency in decision making spaces.
