Mated to the Alien Dragon is a stand alone shifter/alien romance novel set in Mrs. Rudolph's 'universe' (the Oscavian empire is mentioned) but there is no crossover. If you read a lot of shifter romances, this is definitely mostly that, but with the alien aspect thrown in.

My name is Jaya, a dreamer, bola slinger, and one of ten guardians in my tribe. I was content to live out my days keeping watch on the village, hunting, and batting away insects that flew too close to the prissy women chosen to birth the next generation. My life was nothing like theirs. I spent way too much time burying my secret in the dirt, over and over, to make sure of it. Gods no. That wasn't my future...Until the sky lit up and an angry star sent all the Mist tribes into a desperate frenzy for the beasts of legend to bleed new life into our people. It wasn't supposed to turn out this way. I didn't mean to touch him, but what's done is done. Do I have what it takes to seduce a dragon? Don't know, but hold my bola-I'm about to find out.

A dragon shifter series set in the same world as The Bride Hunt books. When Mountain catches the human he's been tracking, his excitement turns instantly to shock. She's not who he thought she would be. Not even close. She's not even one of the females taking part in the hunt. This female is something else entirely. He needs to get her back to his lair for questioning. His people will be interested in all she has to say. At least, that would be the logical, responsible thing to do. Only, he's not feeling particularly logical at the moment. Not when looking into her blue eyes, or taking in her curvy body. Nope! Screw being responsible! He's going to try and win her. The only problem is, this particular female isn't looking for a mate. His superiors won't be happy with his choice either, but he's going for it anyway. This book ends on a mini-cliffhanger! Contains hot alpha males and therefore strong sexual themes/language as it ' s simple. But when they arrive at the research centre, things don ' t exactly go as planned. The handful of guards outside the place are easy enough to take down, but when they ' re about to enter the building, they realise they ' ve walked right into a trap. A trap meant to catch them and take them out so that the renegade fae can take over the area. Can they survive, or will this be the end of their journey? This is the sixth and final novella in the Guarding Their Dragon Mate serial, a six episodes long reverse harem #WhyChoose story. This novella may include any of these elements: steamy scenes, ' I need tissues NOW ' moments, cries of ' why, oh, why ' and cliffhangers that make you bite your nails (and curse the author). Matthew St. James was the Earl of Green Gables, and Lord of Lilac Castle. A dragon of great title and magic, but little wealth. Only one other knew what his true dragon was, and Devon, King of the Dragons, wasn ' t telling anyone. Aisling was a rare white warrior dragon. She had been in slumber several hundred years, healing from a near fatal blow in a great war. She felt betrayed when, Dak, her personal faerie, had been sharing information about her with Lord Connor. Now, she had to go talk to him to determine what kind of payment he would extract from her for his protection while she slept. She had no coin. Not knowing what type of payment he would demand from her had her heart twisted in torment. Aisling didn ' t trust anyone. Too many had betrayed her. And when she refused to speak with the king, Devon ordered her to go to his castle. He would make her listen to reason. Matt arrived at the castle before Devon, but what he wasn't expecting to find was his mate. And because of his title, he couldn't get her to rise from groveling on the ground at his feet to even talk to her. When his dragon realized his mate was in front of him, the Earth dragon bypassed the man and bonded with the white dragon. The joining was both painful and spectacular. In pain, Aisling's dragon, no longer white, took flight. When Matt finally found her, Aisling was no longer timid. She was mad as hell and out for blood.
