Grief is extraordinarily complex. How one copes with loss varies from person to person, moment to moment. Sorrow is one's own. Death is Nothing at All is an illustrated ode to grief, sorrow, loss, pain, resilience, and healing. After losing her daughter, Author Mamamaja sought out an outlet for the waves of emotions she suffered in the aftermath of her tremendous loss. She created this illustrated book using words she combined from Henry Scott Holland's moving writings about grief. Death is Nothing at All pays homage to all who've been lost and those left grappling with pain, sorrow, and the void left in their lives. This extended version joins Holland's The King of Terror with Death is Nothing at All and creates a moving narrative of the shifting emotions and visceral realities of life after loss. It's Mamamaja's hope that the words and accompanying illustrations will provide comfort, inspire healing, and speak to the grief and pain of loss. "Death is nothing at all. It doesn't count. I have only slipped away into the next room."

A woman must choose between two men, best friends, that both love her, in a poignant story of love, loyalty, honor, and guilt set against the perilous backdrop of wilderness firefighting. By the author of The Horse Whisperer. Reprint.

In our deepest grief we still turn instinctively to poetry for solace. These poems, drawn from many different ages and cultures, remind us that the experience of parting is a timelessly human one: however alone the loss of a loved one leaves us, our mourning is also something that deeply unites us; these poems of parting and passing, of sorrow and healing, will find a deep echo within those who find themselves dealing with grief or bereavement. Whatever our loss, it is assuaged in finding a voice - and whether that voice is one of private remembrance or public memorial, The Picador Book of Funeral Poems will help you towards it.

When your life is over, everything you did will be represented by a single dash between two dates—what will that dash mean for the people you have known and loved? As Joseph Epstein once said, " We do not choose to be born. We do not choose our parents, or the country of our birth. We do not, most of us, choose to die. . . . But within this realm of choicelessness, we do choose how we live. " And that is what The Dash is all about. Beginning with an inspiring poem by Linda Ellis titled " The Dash, " renowned author Mac Anderson then applies his own signature commentary on how the poem motivates us to make certain choices in our lives—choices to ignore the calls of selfishness and instead reach out to others, using our God-given abilities to brighten their days and lighten their loads. After all, at the end of life, how we will be remembered—whether our dash represents a full, joyous life of seeking God ' s glory, or merely the space between birth and death—will be entirely up to the people we ' ve left behind, the lives we ' ve changed.
