Professional tango shows in Buenos Aires live up to their name; they certainly are spectacular. Cons of Tango Shows: Some Argentine tango aficionados will argue that while choreographed tango shows are impressive, the dance loses its soul on stage. Many of the dancers compete professionally, as well as perform on stage, which requires a different approach than the social tango dance.

century in the suburbs of Buenos Aires and Montevideo. It typically has a 2/4 or 4/4 rhythmic time signature, and two or three parts repeating in patterns such as ABAB or ABCAC. Its lyrics are marked by nostalgia, sadness, and laments for lost love. The typical orchestra has several melodic instruments and is given a distinctive air by the small button accordion called the bandoneon. It has contin
