The author uncovers the values that true winners exemplify, which will implore the reader to reassess his or her own way of living. Though it's a potentially lucrative enterprise, the reality of independent consulting seldom matches the dream. Most solo consultants and boutique consulting firms are perpetually within six months of bankruptcy due to the sputtering unreliability of their new business engines. The problem, according to international consulting expert David A. Fields, is twofold: 1) lack of a consistent, proven plan, and 2) fundamental misunderstanding about what clients want in a consultant. Fields, who has helped hundreds of consultants and boutique firms worldwide build lucrative, sustainable practices, replaces the typical consultant's mindset of emphasizing expertise and differentiated processes with a focus on building relationships, engendering trust, and solving clients' existing problems. In The Irresistible Consultant's Guide to Winning Clients: Six Steps to Unlimited Clients and Financial Freedom, Fields synthesizes his decades of experience into a step-by-step approach to winning more projects from more clients at higher fees. From nuts-and-bolts business advice and tactics to a deeply insightful breakdown of the human side of a very human profession, Fields delivers a comprehensive guidebook that is at once highly approachable and satisfyingly detailed.

As a former college basketball player, Mr. Parker compiled this straightforward guide for future generations. He was able to graduate with options from a prestigious university by taking advantage of opportunities and being focused driven. "What opportunities?", you may ask. It's in The Guide! One of the best messages conveyed is to start the process of getting into the college of your choice early. Don't wait until your senior year of high school to prepare for your future. Parker described countless means by which he became, say it with me: "The Most Educated Man in College Basketball." How did he accomplish this, you may ask. It's in The Guide. Although Parker outlines his journey, it is by no means the only way to graduate with options. It is intended to inspire you to shoot for the stars and make your journey a success. The helpful tools and illustrations are there to guide you beginning in 8th grade! The guide is a great investment tool for countless college-bound student-athletes who are striving to make the most of their college career. Want to find out how? It's in The Guide!

The manager of bibliographic services at the Foundation Center assembles actual grant proposals that have garnered money for nonprofit organizations, as a guide for newcomers to grant writing, presenting them in sections on special single-year and multi-year projects, endowment, building or renovation, general and operating support, seed money, and planning grant, and also providing examples of letters of inquiry, cover letters, and budgets.

This book is a work of conscience. It is the product of a long-standing feeling of obligation on my part to write something useful for a special group of people to which you probably belong—individuals who seek grants. In my years as Director of the New York library of The Foundation Center, * each and every day I encountered numbers of individuals looking for grant money. Although I tried to be as supportive as possible, in the face of the particular problems shared by this group of library users, my own reaction was one of relative helplessness. Simply stated, most of the fund-raising guides, printed directories, and computer files purportedly created to serve the fund-raising public are of little or no

They are not designed to respond to the special requirements of the individual grant seeker. In the applicant eligibility index, the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance defines individuals as "homeowners, students, farmers, artists, scientists, consumers, small-business persons, minors, refugees, aliens, veterans, senior citizens, low-income persons, health and educational professionals, builders, contractors, developers, handicapped persons, the physically afflicted." In short, practically everyone qualifies.
